Letter No.H.334/33 dated 6-11-33 from the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore rict, to the Muzrai Commissioner in Mysore.

Levy of fees on cocoanuts - Sri Ranganathaswamy temple - Seringapatam.

I have the honor to state that the Dharmadarsis of the Sri Ranganathaswamy temple at Seringapatam have proposed the levy of a fee of 3 pies on every cocoanut presented by the devotees to the temple on the analogy of a similar practice prevailing in the temples at Melkote and Nanjangud.

2. The local officers report that the temple will realise a monthly income of about Rs 15/- by the proposed levy of fee, that the collection work will be managed by the existing temple staff without incurring any additional expenditure on this account and that the system may be permitted to be worked for a period of one year as an experimental measure.

3. I request that sanction may kindly be accorded to the proposal of the Dharmadarsis as recommended by the local officers.

4. The connected papers are submitted herewith.

SIR,

Levy of fee on cocoanut in the Sri Ranganathaswami temple at Seringapatam.

With reference to your letter No.866/Muz.150-33-2 dated 31st December 1933 enquiring whether there is any need for extra funds for the above institution, I have the honor to state that the temple has been continuously working under a debit balance with the result that it has not been possible to adjust the contribution towards Muzrai Establishment Fund. Action is being taken to revise the scale and reduce the expenditure in the institution. Any additional income will go a long way to relieve the institution of the heavy debit balance. In these circumstances I request that sanction of Government may kindly be accorded to the proposed levy of fees on the cocoanuts offered to the deity as recommended by the Deputy Commissioner.

2. The connected vernacular papers accompany.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
